Heading home honors do-gooders and volunteers at Boston Harbor Hotel

December 1, 2011

Red Sox boss John Henry and his wife, Linda Pizzuti Henry, were the VIP guests at Wednesday night's celebration for Heading Home, an organization that fights homelessness in the Boston area. The party, which took place at the Boston Harbor Hotel, honored City Councilor Mike Ross as the 2011 "Public Policy Champion" and Max and Ellie Solomon as volunteers of the year.
